Brief Profile (50–80 words)

I previously worked as a radiology technologist at AIG Hospital, where I gained practical clinical expertise in radiology and imaging technology.

I am currently taking an MSc in Radiology and Imaging Technology at Malla Reddy University, where I work as a Teaching Assistant. Diagnostic imaging methods, CT and MRI applications, radiation safety, and the academic preparation of medical students are among my interests. Through teaching and research, I aim to improve the connection between clinical practice and radiology education.
